

I enjoy my XM radio and do not want it handicapped by legislation. We pay well for the privilege of living in America, where we have the right to enjoy what we want and can afford. Do not take this right away!!! People who do not want what XM has to offer may choose to listen to regular stations, But as for me and all my XM family, we choose Sattelite radio.